

Obituary – K. Appavadhanulu

With profound sorrow, we record the passing away of Shri K. Appavadhanulu, popularly known as Avadhani, a renowned Geologist, on 21.06.2017. He served in various capacities in Geological Survey of India and Mineral Exploration Corporation. He was very popular among his colleagues and admired by all for his ever cheerful, smiling and witty personality.

He was a Life Fellow of the Geological Society of India and took keen interest in its activities. May his soul rests in peace. Our deepest and heartfelt condolences to the family.
